Randy Dean

In this popular program on "getting the most from your Outlook" for MS Outlook Users, Randy goes deeper into many of the most common areas of productivity loss (and possible gain!) afflicting many busy professionals today: managing multiple projects, maintaining "traction" when dealing with tasks and interruptions, getting more from time spent in meetings, clearing the clutter in your mind for better focus, keeping staff on task, tracking "who owes you what" and getting that information on time, and better managing your calendar and contacts for better time and relationship management.

12:00 PM Lunch

1:00 PM Networking Activity

2:15 PM Speak Easy: Redefining Communication

Erik Dominguez

The key to achieving our organization's goals is our ability to communicate and connect. Yet our ever-evolving workplace changed how we do this, leaving many feeling frustrated and "on mute," unable to capture a prospect's attention. Teaching ancient rhetorical strategies with a modern twist, Erik challenges leaders and sales professionals to reimagine what it means to connect with clients, teams, and distribution partners to maximize results. Participants will leave able to ensure maximum impact and maximum results by implementing an approach to communication and connection that works in our ever-evolving workplace!
