

2025 Compliance Officer Boot Camp

August 26 - 28 — Johnston

Presented by: Ginger McCullough, FORVIS

You are, or want to be, the Compliance Officer – now what? Compliance touches every aspect of banking—from product and service development, delivery, and maintenance to servicing and cessation. Yet there is little training or orientation on what is involved in being a Compliance Officer, Manager, Specialist, or Analyst.

How to be a Compliance Officer is a question that looms over most compliance professionals. This three-day workshop seminar will provide detailed insight on what you should be doing and how to do it to be an effective Compliance Officer.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Governance, Risk and Compliance (GRC)
- Compliance Management Systems Defined
- Finding and Understanding the Applicable Laws, Rules, Regulations, Guidance
 - How to read a regulation, statute, guidance
 - How to conduct research and build your library
- Building Your Compliance Risk Management Program (CRMP)
- Managing Compliance
- Risk Assessing Your Compliance Risk Management Program
- Explore Presentation Skills and Influencing Management
- Resources, Resources, and more Resources!

Who Should Attend?

Compliance officers, auditors, managers, specialists, and analysts as well as operations staff and management as they face compliance issues each day on the front line.
