

2025 Two-Day Real Estate Lending Compliance Seminar

August 5-6— West Des Moines

Presented by: Patti Joyner, Financial Solutions

A consumer mortgage is arguably one of the most protected financial credit products available today. Our financial institutions are providing credit to families to provide a safe place for them to live or vacation. As a result, real estate lending compliance continues to get more and more complex ... and frustrating! We'll spend some time honing our skills and increasing our expertise to allow your mortgage line of business to excel. This session will cover recent Ability to Repay and Qualified Mortgage changes, Fair lending hot buttons, FCRA and credit reporting priorities and other key issues, recent enforcement actions and CFPB warnings, and much, much more! There is so much to do and remember, so let's make sure we have some great tools and keep learning new things!

Course Topics

- Equal Credit Opportunity Act
- Fair Housing Act
- Homeowners Protection Act
- Real Estate Appraisal Interagency Guidance
- Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act
- Truth in Lending Act
- ATR/QM
- TRID

Who Should Attend?

This session is a must for your credit risk management team, lending officers, regulatory compliance officers, compliance reviewers and auditors, and your lending operations and servicing personnel throughout the organization.
